Christmas Programme at Belthangady, Ujire

On 21st Dec Capuchin Krishik Seva Kendra® organized a Christmas programme at Belthangady and Ujire. This programme is organized to spread Christmas message to the people of Belthangady and Ujire. Fr. Vinod Mascarenhas Director, Vimukti, Laila, Fr. Joel D'souza and Fr. Norbert D'souza gave fitting message to the public who witnessed the colorful Christmas programme. The Programme began with a beautiful prayer dance performed by Sinchana club children. Ms. Laveena Fernandes welcomed all the dignitaries and the audience present. Christmas songs, Kannada Roopakas, Bible plays and dance were performed by the Brothers of Dayalbagh Ashram, Dayalbagh Agriculture School, Youth club and Vimukti staff members.

Fr. Vinod Mascarenhas in his inaugural speech, he said that in this competitive world we all want to become Gods. S/he does everything for the sake of God. We all are ready to do anything to suffice our personal Gods. We want to achieve name and fame for ourselves. In one hand man tries his level best to become God and in another hand God has decided to become human. The need of the hour is that we need to fight for the rights of deprived, excluded and vulnerable ones of the society. He concluded by saying, all our devotion and religious practices have meaning only if we are able to recognize our need brethren.

Fr. Joel D'souza called the public to imbibe qualities of love, care, affection, peace and good tidings of Christmas. We have to spread goods news of belongingness and brotherhood to everyone. Christmas is not only for Christians, it is also for all the other religions too as Jesus came for the salvation of whole mankind.

Fr. Norbert D'souza, who worked for the Shrilankan displaced inhabitants due to internal war and Sunami shared his touching and valuable experience. He said that in times of sunami and war we all felt a sense of belongingness and common brotherhood as we worked for the upliftment of the displaced, orphans brethren. He called upon the audience present to become more human towards the need brethren and live in peace and harmony. Ms. Veronica Monis gave vote of thanks.
